

DIGITAL STORYTELLING PROJECT

Plan B - our path to online delivery
Morag MacLean - Macmillan Engagement Lead

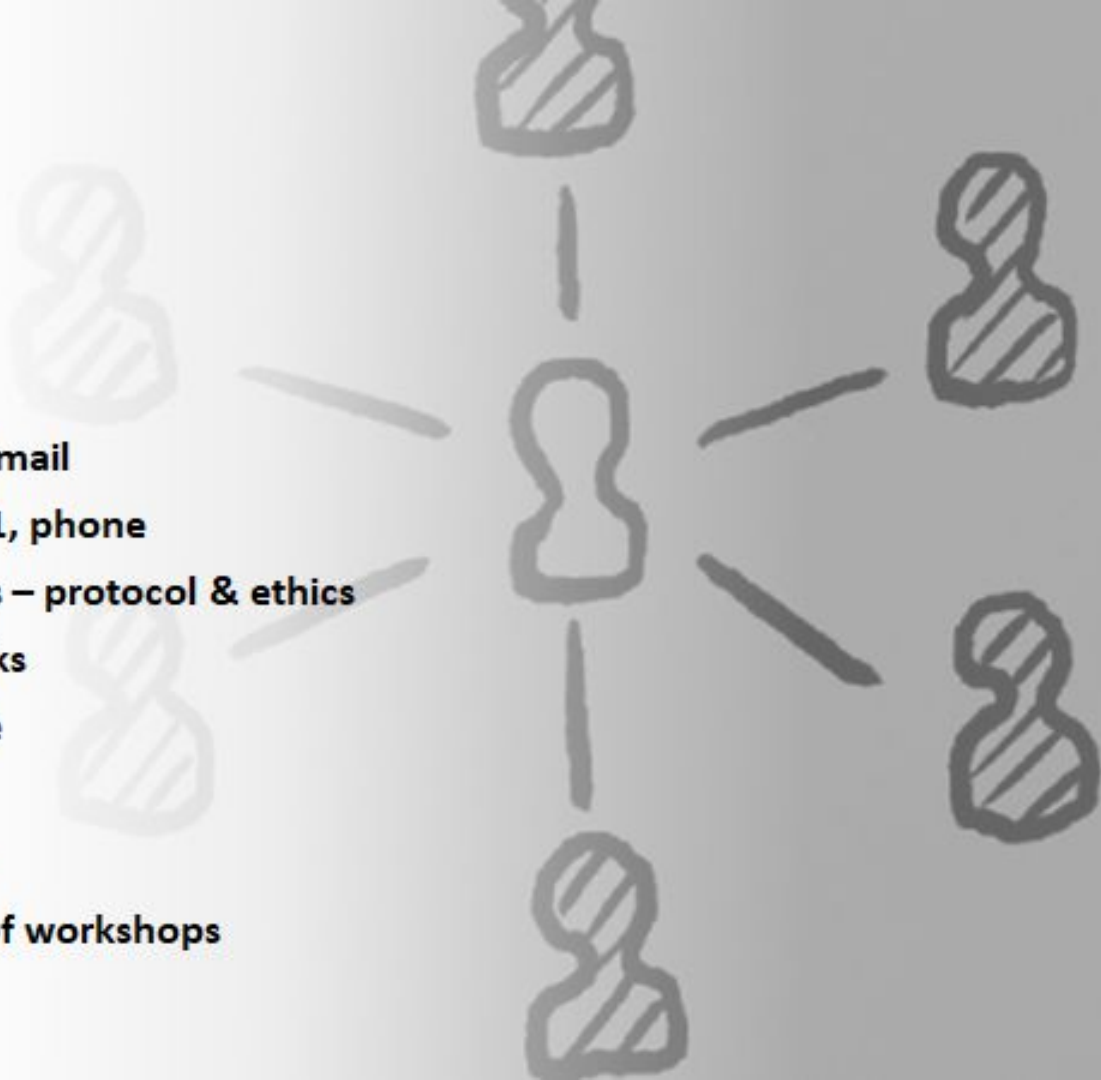

TECHY STUFF

- Information Governance process
 - Signing up electronically – smart survey, email, phone
 - What platform? – Zoom , MS Teams
 - Kit – what did participants have
 - Pre-workshop – support to connect, 1:1 time, how to guides
 - Within workshops – Dedicated time to practice, protocols for workshop
 - Pilot group – test and tweak!
-

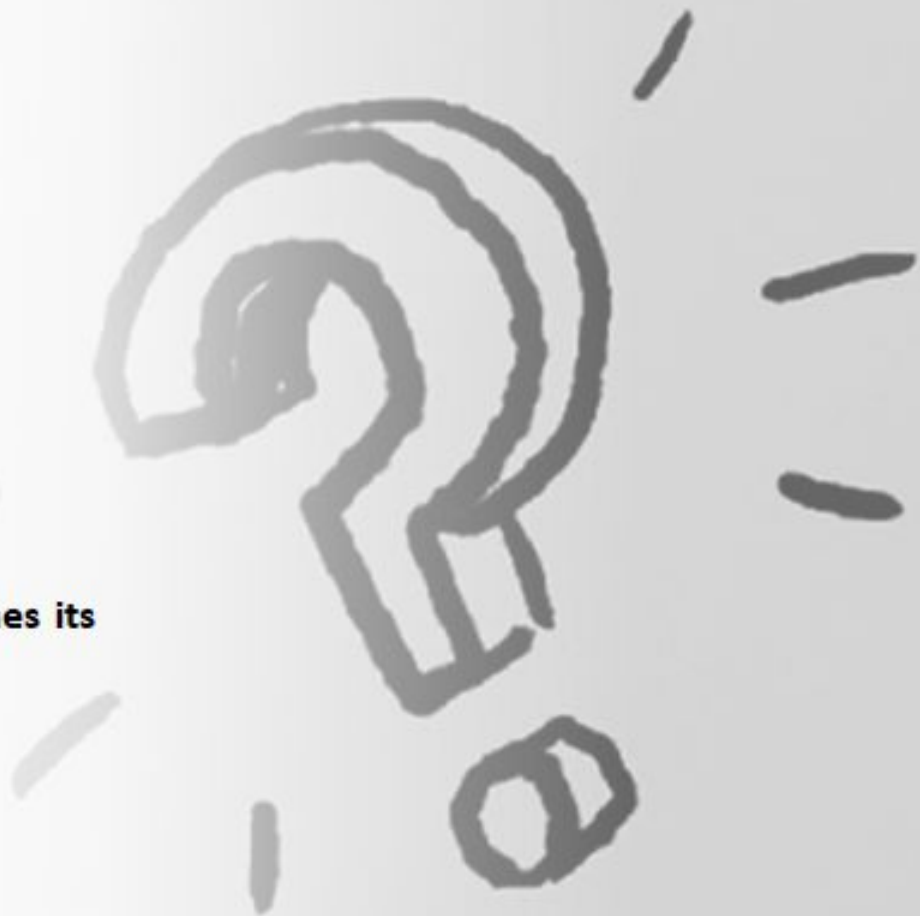

PEOPLE STUFF

- Invited people via smart survey, email
- Taster session options – group, 1:1, phone
- Pre-workshop support documents – protocol & ethics
- Group agreement and support links
- Weekly ‘getting to know you’ time
- 2 facilitators at all times
- 1:1 sessions between workshops
- De-compression time at the end of workshops
- A place to land

LEARNING

- Keeping person and group centred
- Flexibility
- Bringing ourselves to the workshop
- Listening to feedback and trying new ideas
- It will be alright on the night - but sometimes its not!
- The positives

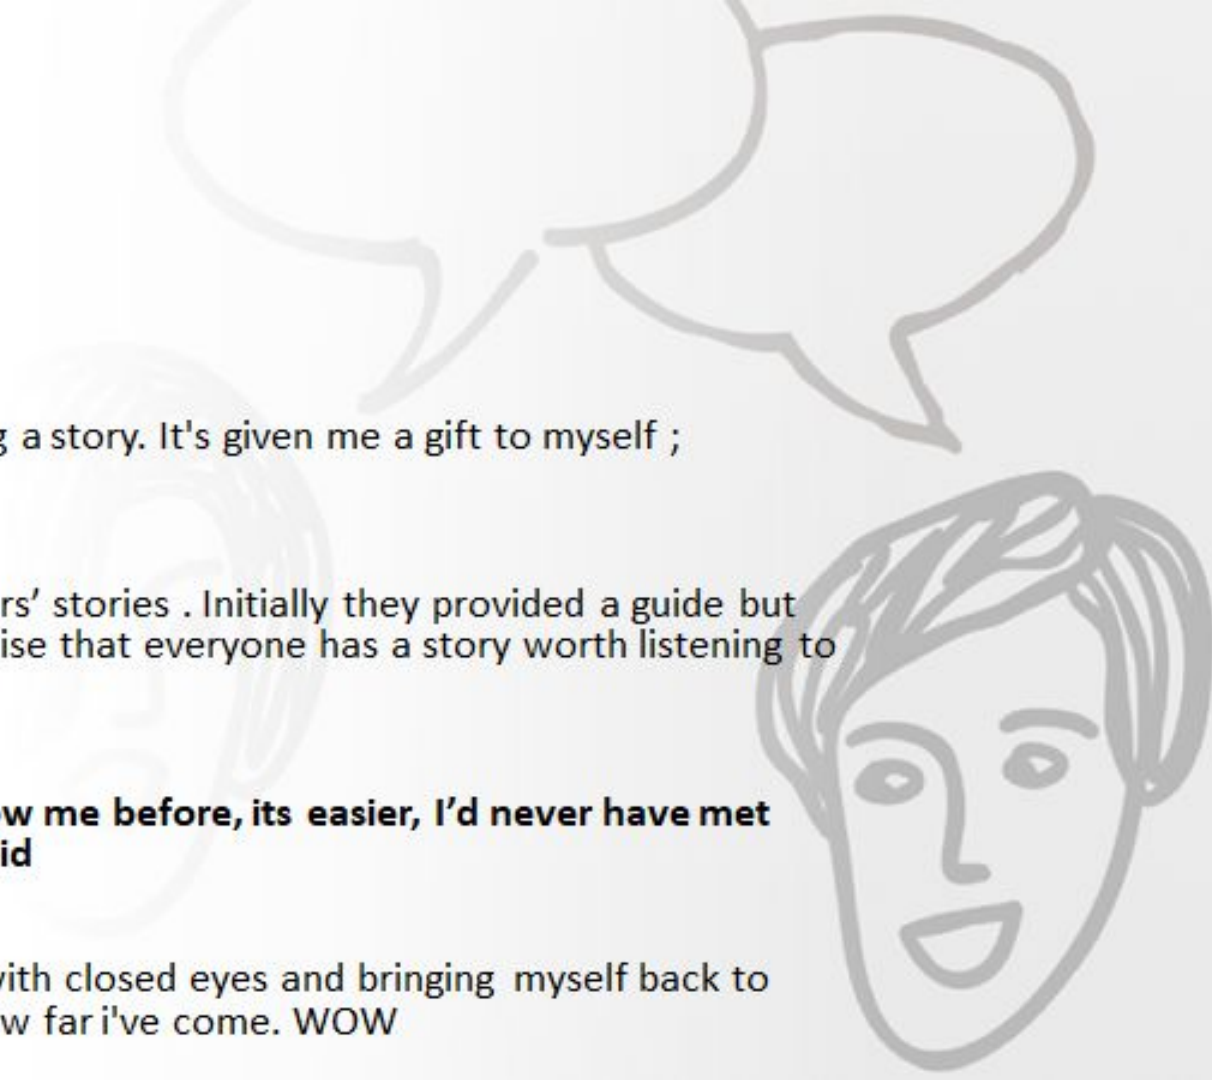

FROM THE STORYTELLERS

It has been more than just telling a story. It's given me a gift to myself ;
Permission to allow others in.

It was really helpful to hear others' stories . Initially they provided a guide but also the messages made me realise that everyone has a story worth listening to (including me!)

I've liked that people didn't know me before, its easier, I'd never have met these people and I'm so glad I did

I'm amazed how sitting quietly with closed eyes and bringing myself back to that day has made me realise how far i've come. WOW

KEEP CONNECTED

- Tasters and workshops
- Individuals /Groups
- Watch more stories
- Share learning

Stories - Digital Storytelling Project watch stories here or Scottish Book Trust <https://digital-stories.scot/>

E-mail: mmaclean@macmillan.org.uk

Tel: 0745 805 9191

Register for tasters/ workshops here

DIGITAL STORYTELLING PROJECT

MOIRA'S STORY WORKING ON THE INSIDE

It's not selfish to look after yourself

